Tucson Wildlife Center is located in Tucson, Arizona. Surrounded by four unique mountain ranges, with endless opportunities for outdoor exploration and considered a desert oasis. Tucson is widely considered one of the world's best destinations for activities such as hiking, cycling, rock climbing, horseback riding, and just about anything else you would want to do outdoors. Also known for its diverse wildlife species, rich cultural traditions, a vibrant arts scene, and great dining, Tucson is the first city in the United States designated as a UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy.
